

A MAN LIVING WITH OCD

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 21 7 P.M.

Join us as Scott Shirey shares his personal story of living with OCD. Scott has fought and lived with Obsessive-Compulsive Disorder for almost 20 years. Learn how OCD took everything away from him, but how he's turning it around and starting a journey to get back what he needs to live a healthy life. His journey has led him to write a book, Danger Life, that will be released soon.

Shirey is a high school teacher and mentor to teens. He hopes to spread awareness of OCD and anxiety disorders, through his writing and unique charisma. He especially wants to help kids that deal with anxiety disorders and educate people on what it feels like to suffer from OCD and anxiety.
